CLOSURE 20:30h

Due to the success of previous editions of the Biennale of Sustainable Architecture, the current edition will pool together the best architects who have been published in Habitat Futura magazine between 2014-2016. Habitat Futura is the most important Spanish magazine focusing on sustainability and architecture.

The current Biennale of Sustainable Architecture rises three specific lines of thinking that will be led by international prestigious architects who will provide a deep reflection about design and sustainability as well as an intense discussion focused on new solutions, innovation, design, etc.
